Explanation of re-investigation results.

When re-investigating disputed information, CSC's procedure is to contact the source of the information directly, either by an automated system, by letter or by telephone. Upon receipt of your request, we will provide you with the company name and the address of the source contacted. In addition, a telephone number will be provided when available.

If the results of the re-investigation indicate that the source continues to report the information you disputed, you have the right to contact the creditor directly or request us to include a notation regarding the disputed information. You may also submit a brief statement to CSC that will be included at the end of all subsequent credit reports which may serve as an explanation of any information you dispute.
